Gitikka Ganju Dhar is one of India's leading live talents, a Goliath in her field, First Awardee Live Quotient Awards Best Anchor India, she has been honored with the Bharat Nirman Award for her contribution to the field of anchoring in India. She has been awarded the two Best Anchor India Female at EEMAX Spotlight Awards 2018 and 2017, Best Emcee Award India by Business World BW Applause Awards 2017, taking her total tally of Best Anchor awards to 5! She was recently awarded the incredible honour of the WOW Live Artist of the Decade Award at WOW Awards Asia 2018.

She is a veteran of more than two dozen television shows and more than three thousand live events across the globe. Her sheer talent and skill are admired by one and all in the industry. She is idolized by the young blood entering the Indian live industry. Her versatility, spontaneity, dynamic personality, vibrance, the ability to rule the stage and her audience, her legendary professionalism and discipline mark her a cut above the rest. Whether a corporate event, government or social event she always raises the bar and takes the event to different level.

The intellectual quotient she brings to the job is unparalleled. She is also a content curator, moderator, and writer and is India's preferred anchor for content based conferences and government events that involve the presence of Heads of State, Presidents and Prime Ministers.

Gitikka believes that her work is the real celebrity and is the force behind her unstoppable career in the world of talk. Her presence in the leadership bracket for almost two decades is standing proof of her unwavering popularity and solid expertise. One may see her wielding the baton of a motivational speaker in a few years from now. "Nothing matters more to me than being respected, as a professional, as a creative person and as a woman." She says. Well, they don't call her one of the most respected anchors of the country for nothing!
